

Judy Garland, You Wonderful You (Reprise)

I'm glad I met you
(wonderful is the only word for you.)
You wonderful you.

I can't forget you
(Isn't it grand to find what love can do?)
You Wonderful you.

You're like a breath of spring
(Tell me)
a whole new thing has happened
(All the Pretty things I like to hear... I can see that...)
and without much adieu I look at you and...

There stands love!

My arms around you
(Isn't that what your arms are really for?)
That's wonderful too

So glad I found you
(Looking around I've found there are no more like...)
You, you ho-ho...
Remember finders keepers
losers weepers
and because it's true you're mine now,
You wonderful you.
