

Judy Torres, No Reason To Cry

(Spoken:)

there's no reason for you to cry my love.
i'll always be around.
So dry your tears my love i'm here now, always, forever.

(Verse 1:)

Happy now it's, between you and me it'll last forever just you wait and see i will prove to you sweetheart the things i'll say come straight from the heart Always be the way i promised that i will always stay I'll grant you a wish that will come true cuz darlin' it was meant for you

(Chorus)

There's no reason for you to cry my love cuz i'll always be around
so dry your tears my love i'm here
always standin' by your side No oh oh oh....
There's no reason for you to cry my love
cuz i'll always be around
so dry your tears my love i'm here
always standin' by your side

(Verse 2:)

Your sorrows had me so confused that your love i did refuse forgive me baby i regret it cuz your love was always true caring for you til the end of time as each day passes by you've showed me the things that i never knew you've showed me how to love like you so.oh.oh.

(Chorus)

Th-th-th-there's no reason-

(Music Break)

oooooooooooooooooooo.....

(Chorus)

(Verse3:)

we'll be together forever more always til the day i die its just a reference so we can learn to understand if only you could see me up my hopes yu would care once in a while.... i look at you and see that you are my guiding light

there's a reason our love always be around
always standin by your side there's a reason I said no reason to cry
I'm always standin by your side

(Spoken:)

there's no reason for you to cry my love.
i'll always be around.
So dry your tears my love i'm here
now, always, forever.
