

Judybats, An Intense Beige

Parceled out like oxygen
Everywhere but very thin
Sampling for sampling's sake
You're an obvious mistake

CHORUS

I love you anyway
You're an intense beige but that's OK
Parceled out like oxygen
Everywhere but very thin
Sampling for sampling's sake
You're an obvious mistake

CHORUS

Whatcha gonna do when it all comes true
It makes you feel blue and then you get lonely?
You get whatcha want, it makes you feel sad
And everything you got says sameness only?
Too bad

Sliding in and out of phase
Massing mindless in a maze
Nothing ventured nothing dared
Fake opaque and very scared

CHORUS

Sliding in and out of phase
Massing mindless in a maze
Nothing ventured nothing dared
Fake opaque and very scared

CHORUS

Talking to yourself it makes it kinda hard, you're always on your guard
Your life is snoring
Fear of extinction keeps you in the yard, you don't go out much anymore
You're so boring!

It's so sad

Barely on the edge of blue
CHeesy channel nothing new
Super square and squeaky clean
Happy little hygiene queen

CHORUS

Whatcha gonna do when it all comes true
It makes you feel blue and then you get lonely?
You get whatcha want, it makes you feel sad
And everything you got says sameness only?
Too bad...so shut up!
