

Jughead, Bullet Train

Lonely girl, little toy
Meets a misdirected boy
In a bitter world of honey
The sun is high, the well is dry
Blinded by love divine
But that love won't take me higher

'Cause I'm on the floor
Ever wanting more
And I have to catch a ride
'Cause she's faster
Than a speeding bullet
At the gate and I cannot wait
If I want to hitch a ride
'Cause she's faster
Than a speeding bullet train

She's got the will, got the fight
Every day and every night
She always thinks that I am lazy
Well here I stand, against the tree
Broken leg and wounded knee
And all I get is maybe maybe

'Cause I'm on the floor
Ever wanting more
And I have to catch a ride
'Cause she's faster
Than a speeding bullet
At the gate and I cannot wait
If I want to hitch a ride
'Cause she's faster
Than a speeding bullet train

Now I hear her knockin' on my door
And I'm feeling faster than before
'Cause I'm faster than a speeding bullet train
Lonely girl, little toy
Meets a misdirected boy
In a bitter world of honey

'Cause I'm on the floor
Ever wanting more
And I have to catch a ride
'Cause she's faster
Than a speeding bullet
At the gate and I cannot wait
If I want to hitch a ride
'Cause she's faster
Than a speeding bullet train
