

Jughead's Revenge, Angry

I get so angry
When I feel the tearing inside
I get so fucked up and angry
I heard the news
They told me you lied
The knowledge of mans mortality
Is the give away
You've been blown away
It's something more than placing the judgement
It runs deeper than placing the hate
It's hiding inside of me
The knowledge of god's mortality
Is the price you paid to be saved today
Or thrown the world away
I get so angry when I feel the sinking inside
It's not about all the things that you've done
But now you're dead
I'm glad that you're gone
