

Jughead's Revenge, Anthem

We just try to go through life
bold and unafraid
we do our best
so we'll never regret
all the choices that we have made we're not exactly where we want to be
we just try to take it
day by day
our family is small but we're walking tall
right through the mess
we made
we are one
I think of all the shit I've been through and I thank God that our hearts held true
so as we go through this rough ass ride
we'll sing anthem
for ourselves tonight
in this song we will not sing about some fight that happened long ago we are celebrating a battle with a far greater foe
the fact that we can write this song
is a freedom that we won't let go
we don't know what's ahead we're just playing out our hand with this song we'll come together and united we shall stand I dream of a place where things are free where anyone can be
what they want to be
so as we go through
this song's for us tonight
