

Jughead's Revenge, Fabric Of The Mind

I saw the ten walls ticking
Reason to justify
A world about to self destruct
That no one can deny
Stare into the face of the eyeless ones
The plan of all thought dies
Unweave the fabric of the mind
The answers are there
Hidden deep inside
When I feel like giving up
I rip my future apart
There's nothing inside my heart
Look into the darkness of the mind
The answers are there hidden deep inside
It's time to think more than twice
I can't believe what I see
The wave of lies coming from my T.V.
Oil pumped onto our shore
The cops are out of hand
Duality's head is reared
The value among my peers
A war that the country's paying for
Until the end is here
The world is a bomb
And so are you
When it explodes
