

Jughead's Revenge, For Once In My Life

I never was the kind who wanted the trouble
I never saw the need to prove I was cool
And when they see you're not trying to fit in
It's kind of hard when you're still in school
I never really got along with my teachers
It'd be easier to be just a clone
I'd be better off with acting like you
I'd be better if you leave me alone
I took the rules and I tore them up
I took the value and smashed it down
I did it all but it wasn't enough
I thought it over and decided that I'd turn it around
After the more than average shit from my dad
I grabbed and got a hold of his keys
I won't forget the look on his face
While me and his car thrashed down the street
On the stage they were jamming
The walls shook the room so loud
It's in a whirl it's out of control
Energy so well endowed
The rev was hot and were slammin'
Swinging from the chandeliers
I don't give a fuckin' shit in the world
Fist full of pills
Bottle of everclear
Later on as I fly down the highway
I can't remember who I was at all
A hundred ten and I'm getting it sideways
Feels like I'm ten feet tall
For once in my life I know it's the truth
Only me and the stereo blasting
I'm gonna die but it's better than youth
Enough of life was for the asking
