

Jughead's Revenge, Rules Don't Apply

The way you guys relate
When will you realize
Your edge is not so straight
Stand and hypocrise
Your minds as filled with hate
That comes as no surprise because
You're stuck
No better than anyone
Your arrogance
Is what keeps you down
Your rules don't apply to me
Want-to-be-'83
I know you're really pretending
Not really what you intend
But something a little deeper has Brought you to this end
So what you're really saying is
You're gonna make them pay
For not being cool enough
For not making the grade
You're just a bunch of Nazis
When will you realize
Your world is so self-righteous
Read between the lines
