Jughead's Revenge, Whom Gods Destroy

I put this world aside
Takes me too long to decide
Scribe these gods onto my eyes
That burn this world I left behind
So what's in store for me
Contrive a dose of sanity
A person too but you can't see
Dormant state society
Say that I don't belong
Views on me you've got all wrong
How can you know my life
Corrective shit now put it right
Throw this world aside
Bow down to ones who tell you lies
Scribe these gods onto my eyes
That burn this world I left behind
