

Jughead, Waiting on the Son

In the dark reverie - oh oh oh
She paints me green
With a silent melody
Faded flower on my sleeve - oh oh oh

You're never alone
When you're alone by yourself
There's always a home
When you are waiting on the son
Hear the voices calling ever so gently
Today I'm gonna shine
I'm just waiting on the son

When the dog gets me down - oh oh oh
I'm lost but found
Shipping distant memories
To my castles in my dreams - oh oh oh

You're never alone
When you're alone by yourself
There's always a home
When you are waiting on the son
Hear the voices calling ever so gently
Today I'm gonna shine
I'm just waiting on the son
