

Jugular, Resounding Death

Metal for the damned
Shall feast upon the night
To summon forth the power
To save your very life

As the thrashing rumbles
Heavy metal time
Then the world shall crumble
Hear the metal cry
As the thrashing rumbles
With eternal death
Then the world shall crumble
With resounding death
Scream of the demon
He challenged you to
The hand of fate
Will destroy you
It's your time to

As the thrashing rumbles
Heavy metal time
Then the world shall crumble
Hear the metal cry
As the thrashing rumbles
With eternal death
Then the world shall crumble
With resounding death

Here we go!

-Solo-

Take you time a time
Where thrashing once occurred
To rise from the ashes
For we are Jugular

As the thrashing rumbles
Heavy metal time
Then the world shall crumble
Hear the metal cry
As the thrashing rumbles
With eternal death
Then the world shall crumble
With resounding death
