Juice, Goodbye My Love

I've been thingking of us these days And how we changed from the way that we were Oh, Baby can't you feel where slipping away And it doesn't feel the same way at all So I say to you

Goodbye my love Goodbye, goodbye now Goodbye, now the happy days are over So long and I won't shed no tears at all No I'll put all those memories away

No more blindly believing a lie, no I'll make it through on my own each day Oh, Baby can't you see love turned away It can never be the same anymore So I say to you

Goodbye my love Goodbye, goodbye now Goodbye, now the happy days are over So long and I won't shed no tears at all No I'll put all those memories away

I never meant to hurt you, no,no I know we failed but at least we tried Boy you know time changes everything So goodbye to my love It's all that I can do So I say to you

Goodbye my love Goodbye, goodbye now Goodbye, now the happy days are over So long and I won't shed no tears at all No I'll put all those memories away

Goodbye...this time I really mean it Goodbye Goodbye, now the happy days are over So long and I won't shed no tears at all No I'll put all those memories away

Goodbye now Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye my love Now the happy days are over So long and I won't shed no tears at all No I'll put all those memories away

Goodbye This time i really mean it Goodbye my love
