

Juice, Thanks For Havin Me

It's a Conglomerate thing for me man
For real. It's all about my crew. CONGLOM
Wattup, J

(Verse 1)

Ever since the E2 tragedy
I ain't been out much, damn you cant be too mad at me
It's impossible to fall, I see through gravity
Peripheral ridiculous, I peep fools after me
Creep through, wearing that deep blue, and actually
I don't stop at red lights though, we move rapidly
And he who, cap at me, meet the new faculty
Bone crusher's chat with me, I play the stoop happily
Love on the north side, like he's a true ath-a-lete
DOn't reach for the neck-a-lece G, the crew backing me
He seen who act and he snapping, he breazes through laughing
He sees D's in back of him
Ice freeze half of his soul, cream stacking up
When I'm fiend and after that gold, your crew backing up tho'
Chains and rings, I leave half the scene massacred
Ching Ching playa, I'll flash the bling back at ya, J

(Spoken word)

"I'm feeling like I got to be one of the hottest niggaz in the Chi, for real. I don't get mentions in all the magazines and shit, but all the motherfuckers that rap know what's up with your boy, for real. I ain't really never had a nigga say shit to me out of pocket. The one nigga that did, we got him on video tape. So what? huh"

(Verse 2)

He's cool, he have to be, retooled his strategy
Started in nine-six, please do the math with me
He rule the masses, and he school the classes
He bleeds through his flanel, you see dude on channel three
You have to learn he grew to master me
Whoever want to step up, he lose catastrophe
Now-a-days you can't creep through with half a key
How it plays is, they sleep you with apathy
NO empathy, I knew these dudes from back in the day
They want to greet you, get the cap and then spray
Then, they either leak you with the mack or the trey
Dudes in the hood like damn, what done happen to J
So, when they offer to meat you sporadically
Evaluate the offer then refuse emphatically
It's all Juice's, he rule dramatically
When I move, the streets move, you majesty, J

(Spoken word)

"Man, I swear to god, I got to be to this hip-hop shit what bumping and those who high niggaz is to the street shit, huh. I'm to hip-hop what them niggaz is to bricks for real. I just can't see a nigga coming here fucking with me man. This is my shit for real. I got the whole city behind me. Test me."

(Verse 3)

In the rap game, name me who can rap with me
Verser are like art, each fueled with capistry
When I was broke on the street, crews would laugh at me
Now I sound dope on a beat, fools harassing me
Used to have coke on the street, dudes would gas at me
The thoughts of sane man, hit through insanity
What the hell happen to we true and family

They tried to bring they heat through and blast at me
Disrespect Hertz, I would eat food with chastity Pitbull with Anthony, it's deep, it's how it have to be Now I smoke with Cheetz do, it baffle me when people that are famly sneak you to a tragedy
Chain still flawless, three jewel managerie
For deals, I'm the person to speak to contractually
Cats don't even have enough rank to battle me
Juice the Infamous, peace, thanks for having me Thanks

(Spoken word)

"It ain't a lot of motherfuckers out now that's, making a whole song rhyme, you know what I'm saying. I aint saying I'm hot, I'm just saying, listen to the words for real. I used to fuck with a lot of motherfuckers, back in the day. I think I was bigger than them niggaz, for real Hey 'Mac, this Conglomerate, for real. What's up, huh? Niggaz know. All my niggaz in LA, whattup cuz. My 20's, my school-yard crips, cuz. All my bolzacs niggaz, real YEAH, know we do it like that. Ok, whattup fo. Shit real Hey, Malik blessed the nigga with a jam, y'all got to buy the album just for that. Ah, that's right."
