

Juke Kartel, Long Way

It's been easy so far, And I've waited so long to know
If I miss you like rain, Will you remember my name tomorrow?
So I can feel, And I will lose your heart.
Take my eyes look inside, My mind.

Now the tables have turned, And it me that you yearn to hold.
So it would feel, that you can choose the war of life, So take my hand, walk side by side till the end

Yeah, it's a long way from here, To me you're the only one.

Your light might never disappear, Its alright its alright.
Yeah, it's a long way I can't go unless I do it my way, Yeah, it's a long way.

So I can feel, and I can feel, And I can feel, and I can feel.
It's you I feel, it's you I feel, It's you I feel.

Yeah, it's a long way from here, To me you're the only one.
Your light might never disappear, Its alright its alright.
Yeah, it's a long way from here, To me you're the only one.
Your light might never disappear, Its alright its alright.
Yeah, it's a long way I can't go unless I do it my way, Yeah, it's a long way.
