

Julia Darling, You

I was faulty then
I am faulty now
But you never judge me
You were quiet then,
So much shyer then,
But you have me
I see a strength in carrying
All the weight you hold
Got your head in the clouds
And your feet on a ground made of gold

Whenever I'm gone
Whenever I'm wrong
I can run to you
When I'm feeling down
It's better somehow
If I can run to you

Though I am lost at sea
Oh, you steady me
And you're always amazing me
I want you to warm
Me and my colder side
Can you sell me your heart,
Your soul
And your love tonight?

Whenever I'm gone
Whenever I'm wrong
I can run to you
When I'm feeling down
It's better somehow
If I can run to you
The sweet hold me right
Will I be the one to run to you?

When I mess it up,
When I mess it up,
You'll never judge me
When you hold me,
When you hold me,
It kills me
I hear the strength you carry in
All around your soul
Got your head in the clouds
And your feet on a ground made of gold

Whenever I'm gone
Whenever I'm wrong I can run to you
When I'm feeling down
It's better somehow
If I can run to you
Whenever I'm gone
When I'm feeling down
Whenever I'm lost
The sweet hold me right
Whenever I'm gone
Whenever I'm wrong
I can run to you
