

Julia Fordham, China Blue

Written by: Julia Fordham

China Blue, fragile and missing you
Just heard the latest news, China Blue

China Blue, tell me it isn't true
One heart broken in two, China Blue

Heaven's holding a pale pale moon
Looks like an anaemic balloon
Can't believe what they're doing to you
Oh China, China Blue

China Blue, fragile and missing you
You did all you could do, China Blue

Heaven's holding a pale pale moon
The breeze whispering a sad sad tune
All my love I send to you
Oh China, China Blue
