

Julia Fordham, I Want To Call You Baby

written by Julia Fordham

I want to call you baby
And you to take care of me
I want to call you baby, baby

God help me
I don't know what's right anymore
I'm robbed of reason in my blind hurry to your door
Blessed is the blend that's racing through my veins
And troubled is the mind that brings me back to earth again

I want to call you baby
And you to take care of me
I want to call you baby, baby

Peel away the layers of of coming consequence
I feel will follow should we fall from innocence
Make it safe to lay in your loving arms
And let's pretend there's no one here to hurt or harm

I want to call you baby
And you to take care of me
I want to call you baby, baby

Gather me up like a child in need
Watch over me while you rock me to sleep
When I'm alone all night in the dark
I blame you for my swollen heart

I want to call you baby
And you to take care of me
I want to call you baby
I want to call you baby
And you to take care of me
I want to call you baby, baby
