

Julia Fordham, Talk Walk Drive talking about Melissa when your name came up talking about mixed signals and all that kind of stuff talking about religion, talking politics and love how we keep talking, talking about everything except us talk walk drive, drive walk talk talk walk driving me away from you, drive walk talk to me baby walking around this city, walking along these streets hoping they might feel familiar beneath these foreign feet walking down to the village, walk to a taxi to your house walking walking on a road to nowhere when it comes to us

why don't you say what you mean? mean what you say I won't let you talk walk drive away driving along the freeway, driving into the hills hoping they might feel familiar beneath these foreign wheels driving until sunset, driving myself too hard driving myself crazier when it comes to us

talk walk drive, drive walk talk
