

Julia Marcell, The Roads

we stop to think about it for a while we've been here before and the days go by times like this things get deeper than I should so you wanna talk
I try to run away but everywhere I go I got you in my head everywhere I go and I'm entitled to feel sorry and you got your right to feel down but all the roads we've walked together are now apart of us
are now apart of us I took a deep breath to tell you how I feel but no words came out
I try to run away but everywhere I go
and I'm supposed to know my feelings and you should always be yourself 'cos all the roads we've walked together
are now apart of us
are now apart of us
