

Julia Michaels, Priest

mmm
yeah
there are liars but then there is you in respect, that's what bought me to you guess I thought I could change you to the truth I don't know /2x what I was thinking

sometimes I miss you and then I remember that I deserve much better cover my tattoo about you with another and now I am feeling much better

you broke my heart
and now
you want some redemption
it's obvious that you ain't learned your lesson you're owning up so you can get to heaven but I am not a priest, so fuck your confession in my weak moments I think about you but not in the way that you think that I do I've actually made up a game with y friends to see how long until this one ends and the next one begins I've got a hundred dollars riding on it

woo
but I am not a priest, so fuck your confession
