

Julia Nunes, I'm Not Good

I wanted out
I saw the crowd moving towards the door but their eyes are shut so with any luck we'll be left on the floor

'cause I'm not good at saying things and I never know what to do when you blurt out words that are so unheard of but I think I still might like you don't mess this up, and I'm talking to me 'cause if we take a look at my history I'm not who you think I am but I'm doing the best I can please don't hate me if I mess this up I'm saying sorry in advance I don't want to break your heart 'cause I'd only break mine but I'm letting you know there's a chance

'cause I'm not good at saying things especially to you but it's been a while and you still make me smile so I think that I might like you by the way,

our parents love each other and that's a long way down the road and as I've well established I'm scared of the unknown so we'll take it slow and I'll let you know I think we'll be fine with a little time

I'm getting better at saying things but it's still so new and I may blurt out words that are so unheard of but I hope that you like me too
