

Juliana Theory, Rainy Day Song

Tell your mom you need a day off so we could play out in the rain we'll catch a ride to the mall go down to the arcade cause that's where all the cool kids hang

cause i dont feel like school today ride our boards down the hill and to the playground where everything's okay

Tell your mom that we'll be home late cause building cabins in the woods is hard work you always stare while i'm leaving cause summer time is growing near my closest friends, they'll always be you are the only one for me

Tell your mom to make us lunch now cause we worked up an appetite Gi Joes and karate matches in the backyard where everything's alright

Now i can see that things have changed we've gone out seperate ways now and it's not you and me anymore

Why cant it be the way it was when we were younger life was good my closest friends i couldn't see
you are the only one for me and i guess i'll hold my breath
