

Juliana Theory, Weekly Long Embrace the canopy above my head is all i see another day

another night
i'm lying here falling asleep i sure hope that they do not think i'm lazy and i hope that they don't think that i'm a slob and i hope that i don't make myself way too much at home i hope you care when i'm gone watch another movie play another song read another passage in the book spend another hour of just another day i hope i don't spend way too much time (falling asleep) i sure hope that you always know i'll miss you and i hope that when you sleep you're looking up cause when i rest i think of all those tired times and i can't sleep when you're gone those closed eyes remind me of what we have so please don't open them yet
