

Julie Brown, Party In My Pants

Life can be so strange
When you're all alone
I want to call you up
But they turned off your phone

Come on
You can dance
At my party
Yeah
Justify your dance shoes

Throw your brain away
Let your body groove
Steal a car tonight
Tell the cops it moved
Don't have to pay this time
This boink's on me
Let's set our brains free

Come on, you know
You're invited
(You're invited)
To the party in my pants
Yeah, come on
Boy, let's dance
(Let's dance)
At the party in my pants

I'll be a virgin for you
Bring your body down
'Cause I know more tricks
Than a rodeo clown
Don't have to pay this time
This boink's on me
Let's set our brains free

Come on, you know
You're invited
(You're invited)
To the party in my pants
Yeah, come on
Boy, let's dance
(Let's dance)
At the party in my pants.
