

Julie Doiron, So Fast

You seemed so young
You didn't notice how fast
Those things would come to you

You seemed so fast
You didn't notice how slow
Those things should come to you

And you've changed
How strange
And I didn't even get to explain
I do, I do

You seemed so dumb
You didn't notice how wrong
Those things were meant for you

You seemed so lost
I know you didn't ever notice me
I tried looking out for you

And you've changed
How strange
And I didn't even get to explain
I do, I do
