

Julie London, A Song For You

Now I know, how it feels when you walk out that door
Now I know, how it feels when you don't love me anymore
I don't care if this is what is meant to be
I don't care, as long as you come back to me

Chorus:

Oeee I have to

But I don't want to

I just have to

(And I need to)

Sing a little song for you

Sing a little song, sing a little song for you

Now I know, how it feels when someone's giving up on you

Now I know, how it feels when you don't care about the things I do

I had hoped, hoped you would always be near

But I'll go, go for whatever's meant to be

Chorus

Oh listen then here's my voice

Listen what I've got to say

Other than there's another choice

But to sing my troubles away

And try to live my life day after day

I'm singing my troubles away

And try to live my life day after day

Should I go

Should I go

Is there anyone, to sing a little song for me?
