

Julie Reeves, What I Need

(Marv Green)

I know if I just keep my distance
You will see what you are missing
And you will learn that no one can love you like I do
I look involved in conversation
But I'm strugglin' with temptation
So tonight as you walk into the room

What I want is to hold you
Cause my world without you is just another lonely place to be
But what I need is to hold out
Until you have no doubt
There's only one love for you and it's me
So I'll be strong 'til you can believe what I need

My impression of what love is comes and goes like your kisses
It's clear as day when I hold you in my arms
Though I'll admit that you're my weakness
I'm gonna fight these feelings
Until you can promise me your heart

What I need is to hold out
Until you have no doubt
There's only one love for you and it's me
So I'll be strong 'til you can believe what I need
What I need