

Julien Creance & Alexander Perls, Heatwave

This is what it sounded like to me:

Chorus (x 2):

I'm coming to you on a heatwave
No matter how long your love takes I'm coming to you on a steam train speeding out of the night again
(night again) x

[instrumental break]

Is there something sacred that you believe in?

{Is there a castle to the sand?} - unclear

I'm approaching with an open heart
I'm coming to you right from the start
And now are you gonna let me in?

Chorus
