

Julien-K, Maestro

You can say it's a lie, say it's not so
If everything is different now, don't let me know
Say what you want, remember to breathe
As everyone starts changing, don't look at me

I want to feel
This love is for real
Pretending can't be easier

I want to feel
This love is for real
Pretending can't be easier

Take what you want, I'll cut the strings
A light inside is fading, taken from me
I know who you are - the Maestro of blame
If everything starts changing
Then just go away

I want to feel
This love is for real
Pretending can't be easier

I want to feel
This love is for real
Pretending can't be easier

Falling in, falling out
It's hard to be indifferent
And just look the other way

Falling in, falling out
It's hard to be indifferent
And just look the other way

Falling in, falling out

I want to feel
This love is for real
Pretending can't be easier

I want to feel
This love is for real
Pretending can't be easier

I want to feel
This love is for real
Pretending can't be easier

I want to feel
This love is for real
Pretending can't be easier
