

Julien-K, Systeme De Sexe

You let your body talk
You know what I mean
Like a killer stalks
In a lover's dream
I'm here to play your game
You're such a pretty thing
I try to stand my ground but it's hard
So hard to leave you alone

I gave you all my money
Now show me to the honey, baby
Legs as white as sugar
Candy on the window sill

You let your body talk
It's all part of your scheme
And the way you walk haunts my dreams
I'm here to play your game
You're such a pretty thing
I try to stand my ground but it's hard
So hard to leave you alone

I gave you all my money
Now show me to the honey, baby
Legs as white as sugar
Candy on the window sill

It's so easy to see
To cross the fine line in front of me
To cross the fine line in front of me

I gave you all my money
Now show me to the honey, baby
It's music when you scream my name
Tell me that you feel the same

I gave you all my money
Now show me to the honey, baby
It's music when you scream my name
Tell me that you feel the same

You look good
Now let the devil inside
It feels fine
Now there's nothing to hide

It's so easy to see
To cross the fine line in front of me
To cross the fine line

It's so easy to see, ahh
Easy to see
It's so easy to see, ahh
Easy to see
It's so easy to see
To cross the fine line in front of me
It's so easy to see
To cross the fine line in front of me
It's so easy to see

It's so easy to see
