

Juliette And The Licks, You're Speaking My Language

This one goes out to the entire world
That's right

I know you think you know me better than that
I beat your dog cause he hit on my cat
I wipe my face off and give your kisses back baby

You're speaking my language baby
You're speaking my language baby
You're speaking my language baby
Keep the pinball rolling

All the boys and all the girls quit your drugs
Shake it up
Rule the world
I wanna feed you like a bunch of baby birds
Punch your mind make sure that you heard
Another reckless little ...
You think you're winning when you're winning to lose

You're speaking my language baby
You're speaking my language baby
You're speaking my language baby

I think you heard me

I know you think you know me better than that
I beat your dog cause he hit on my cat
I wipe my face off and give your kisses back
Keep your trigger loaded while you're rockin' and rollin'
All night

You're speaking my language baby
