

Juliette & The Licks, You're Speaking My Language

This one goes out to the entire world
That's right
I know you think you know me better than that
I bit your dog 'cause he hit on my cat
I wipe my face off and keep your kisses back baby
You're speaking my language baby
You're speaking my language baby
You're speaking my language baby
You could be my Romeo
All the boys and all of the girls
Push it up shake it up to the world
I wanna feed you like a bush of baby birds
Put your mind, make sure that you heard
Another week of less allowance you know
You think you're winning when you're winning to lose
You're speaking my language baby
You're speaking my language baby
You're speaking my language baby
I don't think you heard me
I know you think you know me better than that
I bit your dog cus he hit on my cat
I wipe my face off and keep your kisses back baby
Keep your trigger loaded
Rockin' or rollin' all night
You're speaking my language baby
You're speaking my language baby
You're speaking my language baby
You're speaking my language baby
You're speaking my language baby
You're speaking my language baby
You're speaking
You're speaking
You're speaking
You're speaking
You're speaking
