

July For Kings, Away

Powerless and vulnerable
fighting complete loss of control just ask and receive
imagine believe
it's not just a dream
something greater than I can understand surrender to unfeeling eyes and hands
just ask and receive
imagine believe
it's not just a dream
it's not just a dream
it's not just a dream
Take me away

Take me somewhere a little less loud
a little more safe
what's that voice calling from the clouds I must be leaving

It's not just a dream
it's not just a dream
it's not just a dream

Take me away...

a little more safe
what's that voice
it's calling from the clouds
I must be leaving

Take me away...

it's not just a dream
it's not just a dream
it's not just a dream

Take me away...
