

July For Kings, Granted

Cause I don't know if I should go and I don't want to go out all alone maybe I'll walk and maybe I'll drive I could find a field and fly away take off these shoes and fly

Cause I don't know if I can go through with this I feel so scared
I'm so all alone
so we're flying high above the ground I feel ill now more than I've ever known
more than I've ever known

Oh wait a minute something's going wrong people screaming children running around I can't think of any reason why I can't live one more day

Awake from my sleep greeted by peace and serenity don't know what happens and where am I and why am I still alive

Cause my heart is beating and babies are sleeping and prayers of thanksgiving and now it is time to finish my dreams

Take nothing for granted
take nothing for granted
