

July For Kings, Kings

Seven strong we came and Seven we were named in an empire of irrepressibility Dancing in the street with heaven at our feet in a circle of sustenance
And no one stopped to say that we'd be gone someday
the reign was now

When no one cared about finding a way out
the reign was now
was now
was now
was now

Throwing stones across a river as we walked a line of bliss, a clockless never neverland

Nothing stopped the dance
nothing stopped the dance
a circle, untouchable

And no one dared to say maybe we'd fall away
the reign was now
was now

And we were kings
and we were kings
and we were kings...

And no one stopped to say

When no one cared about

And we were kings
and we were kings...

We danced and we danced in open fields of our escape we spun and we won the day
we danced into the sun
we danced and we danced and we danced
into the sun
into the sun
into the sun

And we were kings...
