

July For Kings, Rise

You told me to take my questions to the mirror I've lost you told me to find my answers at the line I crossed my source of strength is a dream I'd never compromise now the emptiness subsides Unforgiven promises
all the unfound wishes
countless times you've held me down kept me down
But I will rise
never compromise

Unforgiven promises

I will rise.
