

July For Kings, Soldiers

Tell the world that I still burn tell the world that i'm still breathing tell your friends that I'm alright tell your friends that i am Jesus Christ if it makes them feel like dancing.
Tonight the earth is getting thinner and the sky just won't hold still will I outlive another winter tell your friends that I will Lose myself like a child in the snow gentle steps so I won't fall below through the ground and this velvet sky somewhere else the armies pass me by Now soldiers call and soldiers fall your armies will never contain me tonight I shine

tonight is mine
the soldiers will never contain me

Come on

It's a natural progression into ourselves as we become this natural infection away from fear we're leading everyone into their fathers' corners corners
yeah

I see the insects closing in take a weapon we can kill every reason no one wins and tell your friends that i will

gentle steps so I won't fall below
somewhere else the armies pass right by now soldiers fall

and soldiers call
your armies will never contain me
and your armies will never contain me

hey hey hey come on, come on fall fall fall fall

and those soldiers crawl their armies will never touch me cause tonight i shine and this night is mine

let the soldiers cry the soldiers die

your armies just cannot touch me cause tonight I burn tonight I learn
the soldiers will never contain me
