

Jump Little Children, B13

There is a place for me
Far far away
On a distant moon
Or on a silver screen
With the perfect life
Where you'll never die
You just pass me by
There is a place for me
Far far away
On a distant screen
Or on a silver moon
Stolen late one night
With arms held high
Screaming take me away
I could watch you 1000 times
Row B Seat 13
Half a ticket
In the silver light
An entire universe between
There is a place for me
Far far away
Someone else's dream
Or in a magazine
Posterred over your bed
Put your hands to your head
Screaming take me away
I could watch you 1000 times
Half a ticket in the silver light
An entire universe between
I'm the only one around
Not a sound
Just a breath of the settling
In the flickering light.
There is a place for me
Far far away
On a distant moon
Or on a silver screen
In the perfect life
Where you'll never die
In the perfect life
Where you'll never die
In the perfect life
Where you'll never die
You just pass me by
