

Jump5, All Because Of You

All Because of You

Sunlight on the windowpane
Something new runnin' through my veins
Everyday is like a new beginning
It's something 'bout the way I'm feeling
When you say you love me

CHORUS

Your words are ringin' over and over
Changing everything I thought I know
I know a love that's true
And it's all because of you
(All because of you)

I'm always wallowing in my mistakes
It doesn't always seem to go my way
You come to me and everything's OK
It's something 'bout the way I'm feeling
When you say you love me

Repeat Chorus

BRIDGE

I fall more in love with you
Every time you say you love me
Your words are ringing
I know it's all changing
All because of you, of you

Your words are ringin' over and over
And it's all because of you
(All because of you)

Repeat Chorus

All because of you(2x)
