June, Elevators Are Matchmakers

And anything to get an answer
I'll say what you wanna hear
You know that I am bad at that
But the silence is awkward
And I've been, I've been just fine
How about you?
Start a little conversation
I'm sorry, I'm going up are you going down?
Or are you in or out?
We'll just have to wait and see now,

I got a question, but I didn't mean to interrupt
Trying to figure you out, not cut you off
I'm sorry, I will wait, I'm sorry, I will
Can you really fake just how this feels?
All I wanted, all I wanted was your time
Can you really fake just how this feels?
Can you really fake just how this feels?
All I wanted was your time
'Cause I know you got an answer set aside

And anything to get what you want
Youll say what you have to say,
Keep it together, you know I didn't mean to interrupt
But I can't fill you with the lines that
You know you love
How I keep this conversation going on and on
And I know that your starving for more
But your foot's out the door
Or are you in or out?
We'll just have to wait and see now

I got a question but I didn't mean to interrupt
Trying to figure you out not cut you off
I'm sorry, I will wait, and I'm sorry, I will
Can you really fake just how this feels?
All I wanted, all I wanted was your time
Can you really fake just how this feels?
Can you really fake just how this feels?
All I wanted was your time
'Cause I know you got an answer set aside

Try to figure you out
I can't, I can't,
When you always ask for more
I can't, I can't,
Try to figure you out
(All I wanted was your time)
I can't, I can't,
When you always ask for more
(All I wanted was your time)
I can't, I can't,

I got a question but I didn't mean to interrupt (Can you really fake just how this feels)
Trying to figure you out, not cut you off
I'm sorry, I will wait, and I'm sorry, I will (Can you really fake just how this feels)
Can you really fake just how this feels?
All I wanted, all I wanted was your time
Can you really fake just how this feels?
Can you really fake just how this feels?
All I wanted was your time
'Cause I know you got an answer set aside
