

Junkie XL, Broken

Fading out
Holding on the innocent weep
Luck's run out
Left this hole inside of me
Crying out
Screaming down as the echoes within
The cat is out
No more secrets left to keep
The feeling's gone
We've swallowed the sun
One by one the moment has come
The feeling's gone
We've swallowed the sun
And waived goodbye to love again
Staring down
Tears roll down and land at your feet
Broken clouds
A canvas torn for all to see
The feeling's gone
We've swallowed the sun
One by one the moment has come
The feeling's gone
We've swallowed the sun
And waived goodbye to love again
The feeling's gone
We've swallowed the sun
One by one the moment has come
The feeling's gone
We've swallowed the sun
And waived goodbye to love again
Fading out...
Holding on...
