

Junkie XL, Today

You've got the bluest eyes
That I have seen
Lost up in the skies
Caught in a dream
What you whisper to me
And breathe into my veins
And believe in magic
To wash away the stain
And it feels like today
So just hold on tight x2
And let it slip away
Give me all the weight
That holds you down
Don't let it stop
And burn in for the [sound]
And the world keeps moving
It's all i've ever known
And the know inside that
I'll never be alone
And it feels like today
So just hold on tight x2
And let it slip away
And it feels like today
So just hold on tight x2
And let it slip away
And it feels like today
So just hold on tight
And let it slip away
