

Jupiter Sunrise, Why'd I Wait So Long?

The shape of forever 'round her finger,
from whom her love belongs.
Drivin' home I wonder, "why'd I wait so long?"
Why'd I wait so long?

Whoah, oh no
Why did I wait so long?
Whoah, oh no
Why'd I wait so long?
Where, now, will all this love for you belong?

All the feathers I was holding,
have long since blown away.
When Spring sings a new song for me,
Am I still holding on?
Am I still holding on?

Whoah, oh no
Why am I still holding on?
Whoah, oh no
Why'd I wait so long?
Where, now, will all this love for you belong?

This song's for moving on...

Whoah, oh no
Why am I still holding on?
Whoah, oh no
Why'd I wait so long?
Whoah, oh no
Why am I still holding on?
Whoah, oh no
Why'd I wait so long?
Where, now, will all this love for you belong?
