

Just Jinger, Many Things

Oh Lord, as if I never knew I could meet a someone else that I could call myself
And now, if everything is true Everything I knew puts me right back towards myself
Should I see your own ways

And I've been through many things,
my love
And all that I am, is forsaken, 'cos
it's been taken

Oh Lord, as if I never knew
I could never tell if something happened to myself
And now, I'm telling only you You and only you can make a lifetime for myself

Should I see your own ways

And I've been through many things,
my love
And all that I am, is forsaken, 'cos
it's been taken

Please don't say
Please don't say
YOU'll understand
And I've...

Oh Lord, as if I never knew Everything is everything and I just won't relate Right now, I know I never knew
But now that I've been educated I've become myself
