

Just Jinger, Those Days

Everybody knew, everybody saw
It was wrong for me, wrong Everybody knew, that soon it would Present something new to me
They'd say, save yourself

Those days are over, I will not take it
Those days are over

Should have known before, should have known before
It was wrong for me wrong
Should have known that soon
It would catch me up and take my soul away
They'd say, save yourself

I had a choice to make, logically Plain to see, so many turns to make Along the way, gone the day, that saved me
