

Just Jinger, Truly Faithful

I don't expect you
To be truly faithful
I just sometimes need your love
Please don't expect me
To be truly grateful
'Cos for once I found my love
And I'm tasting it on all my tears

And though I've come alone
I don't expect you
To send me a 'thank you'
Through the mail
And if you think I don't
Let me assure you
I know what I'm into
So why don't you chill?
Well I've seen you hide
I've seen you cry
And you're not quite so sure
'Cos you've got one foot out the door

I don't expect you ...

If I could have seen this coming
I would have slipped away
Into my own reclusion
Far from everyone
Apart from everyone
