

Just Off Turner, Just Go

Wave goodbye
I don't need to wave goodbye
I don't need to tell you why
I don't want you no more

Oh, you see this face
It's the last time you'll see this face
All you'll see is the empty space
Next to you on the floor

Sometimes we all need protection
But I can't maintain this connection
'Cuz everyone already knows

So go...
Why don't you just go?

Oh, anyway...
I feel better now anyway
I feel better than any way
I just can't lose my nerve

Oh, and you'll be fine
I'm sure that you'll be fine
I'm sure that I'll get mine
And you'll get what you deserve

We're moving in different directions
But I can't keep up this deception
And everyone already knows

So go...
Why don't you just go?
Why don't you just go?
Why don't you just go?

Sometimes we all need protection
I can't maintain this connection
Everyone already knows
That we're moving in different directions
But I can't keep up this deception
And everyone already knows

So go...
Why don't you just go?
Why don't you just go?
Why don't you just go?
