

Justifide, Anymore

I'm not your little toy anymore
So you can't play with my mind
So go on and head on your way
I don't need this right now, or anymore

(Chorus)

Yeah I'm out the door
I've wasted all my time on you
Well I should have known, both me and you were so into you
And I can't take it anymore, yeah

And I need someone else, one who cares about myself
The one that wants me because of me
And you can take your stupid 'rockstar' dream and run away
Cuz I don't need you, don't need you anymore
