

Justifide, Trust In Him

Some day you'll understand, that worryin's a waste of time leave it up to him, cause i know that you'll be allright, allright

Live life day by day, then focus on the true can't you see the way God made you, how beautiful you are in his eyes it's no surprise

You can trust in Him, let him show you the way
You can count on Him, that he'll never leave your side

Give all you have to Him, don't let the world bring you down he'll carry you through the good and bad, when times are rough you can you can

You can trust in Him, let him show you the way
You can count on Him, that he'll never leave your side

Until the end of time, he'll be by your side, walking in the path of God's life and I know, that everything, is gonna be allright cause he'll show you the way, you can count on him, and he'll never leave your side
